ALMA - THE KEY TO OUR PRINTED AND ELECTRONIC RESOURCES

The screenshot shows the Alma library portal homepage. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for Search functions, Help, About, Change portal, and Feedback. On the right, there are language options (Suomi, Svenska) and a LOGIN button. Below the navigation bar is a large banner image of a town. Overlaid on the banner is a red box with the text "Alma - Åbo Akademi University Library and Archives". Below this is a search bar with the placeholder "Find..." and a dropdown menu for "All fields". There are also buttons for "Q* Advanced search" and "Q Search E-articles (PCI)". Below the search bar is a red navigation bar with icons and labels for BROWSE, eJournals, Course books, Databases, Theses, and Images. Below the navigation bar, there are two main sections. The left section is titled "News" and contains links for "Publish your article open access free of charge in ACS' journals", "Summer opening hours", and "Publish your article open access with a discount in Elsevier journals". The right section is titled "Alma is a search portal for Åbo Akademi University Library, Archive Collections and digital resources" and contains a list of sections: "Printed, electronic and archival materials", "E-articles (PCI)", "Archival materials", and "Repository Library in Kuopio". Below these sections are three red buttons: "Library website", "Libguides", and "Renew your loans". At the bottom, there is a row of logos for MOT, ProQuest Ebook Central, and pressreader, followed by a stack of books and a photograph of a person in a field.

HOW DO I REQUEST AND RESERVE BOOKS AND JOURNALS IN ALMA?

- In the Arken, ASA and Axelia libraries, you'll find the books on open shelves
- The Book Tower has closed stacks, and the books and journals must be requested in Alma abo.finna.fi
- Charged books can be reserved in Alma. You'll receive an e- mail notice when the book is ready to be picked up

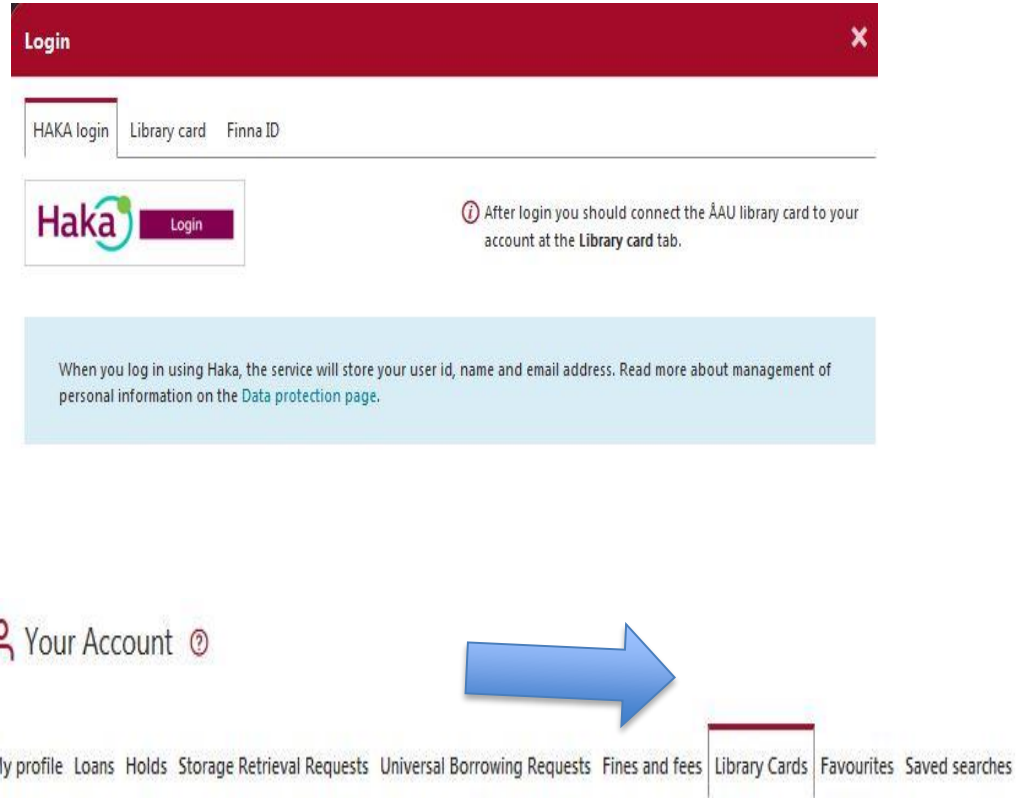

HOW DO I BORROW BOOKS?

- Requested and reserved books must be picked up within a week, course books within 3 days
- You'll find these books on a self-service shelf under your surname
- Borrow the books at a self-checkout machine (or at the library desk)

REMOTE ACCESS TO ALMA AND E-RESOURCES

- When off campus, log in with your ÅAU username and password
- After login, please connect your library card to your account

The screenshot shows the login interface for the Åbo Akademi library. At the top is a red header with the word "Login" and a close button. Below this are three tabs: "HAKA login", "Library card", and "Finna ID". The "HAKA login" tab is active, showing a "Haka" logo and a "Login" button. To the right of the login area, there is a note: "After login you should connect the ÅAU library card to your account at the Library card tab." Below this is a light blue box with text: "When you log in using Haka, the service will store your user id, name and email address. Read more about management of personal information on the Data protection page." At the bottom, there is a "Your Account" section with a user icon and a help icon. A large blue arrow points from the "Your Account" section to the "Library Cards" link in the footer. The footer contains several links: "My profile", "Loans", "Holds", "Storage Retrieval Requests", "Universal Borrowing Requests", "Fines and fees", "Library Cards", "Favourites", and "Saved searches".
