

Deliberative Democracy & Public Opinion Summer School 2022

Understanding Public Deliberation

Summer School in Deliberative Democracy and Public Opinion Research

Understanding Citizen Deliberation – Contexts, Opinions, Consequences

Monday June 20

Location: Arken, Fabriksgatan 2; Tehtaankatu 2

09:00 Registration opens in the lobby of Arken

10:15 Greetings from Åbo Akademi University, Arken, Auditorium Armfelt
Rector Mikael Lindfelt

10:20 Welcome and Introduction to Keynote Lecture
Professor Kimmo Grönlund

10:30 Keynote Lecture
Professor James S. Fishkin: Can deliberation cure the ills of democracy?

11:40 Break

11:55 Introduction to Keynote Lecture
Professor Kaisa Herne

12:00 Keynote Lecture
Professor Jane Suiter: Irish citizens' assemblies - the gradual process towards institutionalisation

13:10 Lunch

14:35 Introduction to Keynote Lecture
Professor Maija Setälä

14:40 Keynote Lecture
Professor Graham Smith: Landing citizens' assemblies: turning our gaze to bureaucracy

15:50 Short break

16:00 Presentation of FIRIPO and the deliberation laboratories
Kimmo Grönlund

17:00 Welcome reception
The Faculty's greeting, Dean Marko Joas

More information about the Summer School:

<https://www.abo.fi/institutet-for-samhallsforskning/summerschool/>

20–22 June
Turku - Åbo

2022

Tuesday June 21

Location: ASA-building, Fänriksgatan 3; Vänrikinkatu 3

09:30 to 11:00 | Fänriken, Paper session 1

Chair: Marina Lindell. Discussants: Alice el-Wakil & Maija Jäske

Arild Ohren – The representative claim of deliberative mini-publics

Lisa Basishvili – Importance of TV media for democratic deliberation and civic engagement – the case of Georgia

Katariina Kulha – Deliberative mini-publics – advancing shared understandings of justice in climate transitions?

09:30 to 11:00 | Fabriken, Paper session 1

Chair: Lauri Rapeli. Discussants: André Bächtiger & Lucy Parry

Julien Vrydagh – How much political influence should we expect from minipublics?

Seraphine Arnold – Roads to minipublic success: exploring “technocratic” and “democratic” pathways to uptake based on a new dataset of deliberative minipublics

Souvidhya Khadka – Agenda setting and transmission mechanisms in local level deliberations in Nepal

11:00 Coffee break

11:30 to 13:00 | Fänriken, Paper session 2

Chair: Jane Suiter. Discussants: Hans Asenbaum & Janette Huttunen

Marie-Isabel Theuwis – The effect of participation in a participatory budgeting on citizens' populist attitudes

Young Jee Kim – Domination of extreme opinion and its impact in pulling others' opinion shifts

Simone Haarbosch – Criteria for participation in the Dutch Energy transition: analysing the positioning of Dutch citizens in 6 Dutch RES regions regarding participation in the energy transition in light of energy justice

11:30 to 13:00 | Fabriken, Paper session 2

Chair: Henrik Serup Christensen. Discussants: Sofie Marien & Jamie Pow

Vanessa Schwaiger – What young people want from democracy: a conjoint experiment on democratic designs with 15-year old pupils

Patricia Mockler – Investigating the macro-political outcomes of deliberative mini-publics

Valgerður Björk Pálsdóttir – Lack of consequences of democratic innovations on political decision-making processes: motivations and opinions of politicians in Iceland

13:00 Lunch

14:15 Roundtable, The Future of Deliberative Democracy, ASA Main auditorium

Chair: Director of Research Lauri Rapeli

Participants: Prof. André Bächtiger, Prof. Nicole Curato, Prof. Kaisa Herne & Prof. Sofie Marien

15:45 Free time

19:30 Summer school dinner

Wednesday June 22

Location: ASA-building, Fänriksgatan 3; Vänrikinkatu 3

10:00 to 11:00 | Fänriken, Paper session 3
Chair: Peter Söderlund. Discussants: Saskia Goldberg & Inga Saikkonen

Rodrigo Ramis Moyano – Mini-publics and the ideology of their commissioners: a closer look at the deliberative wave at Europe
Julian Frinken – Not merely “standing for”, but also “acting for”: the concept of „deliberative representation” in minipublics

10:00 to 11:00 | Fabriken, Paper session 3
Chair: Kaisa Herne. Discussants: Nina Tynkkynen & Jane Suiter

Christian Carl & Palle Bech-Pedersen – Deliberation on two tracks
Chiara Valsangiacomo – Liquid assemblies: a legitimate democratic innovation?

11:00 Coffee break

11:30 to 13:00 | Fänriken, Paper session 4
Chair: Nicole Curato. Discussants: Peter Söderlund & Janne Berg

Anne Nygaard Jedzini – How do city council politicians facilitate co-creation? Evidence from Australia and Denmark
Nicolas Côté – Political de-polarization: a whole life-cycle approach to deliberative projects

11:30 to 13:00 | Fabriken, Paper session 4
Chair: Maija Setälä. Discussants: Marina Lindell & Henrik Serup Christensen

Ernesto Cruz Ruiz – Political inequality and democratic innovations in Latin America after the 1980s
Lisa van Dijk – Minipublics as a remedy for political dissatisfaction? On the importance of trust when adding a small subset of ordinary citizens to the equation

13:00 Lunch

14:15 to 15:15 | Fänriken, Paper session 5
Chair: Inga Saikkonen. Discussants: Graham Smith & Nanuli Silagadze

Janosch Pfeffer – Changing attitudes on climate change: public deliberation versus elite direction
Joanna Massie – Bridging the gap between mini and mass publics: who volunteers for deliberative mini-publics?

Wednesday June 22

14:15 to 15:15 | Fabriken, Paper session 5
Chair: Nina Tynkkynen. Discussants: Nicole Curato & Sebastien Rojon

Lucas Henrique Nigiri Veloso – Bodies, vulnerability and the deliberative system: the case of the Brazilian anti-asylum struggle
Franziska Maier – Commonality in pluralistic societies: solutions from a deliberative experiment

15:15 Farewell coffee
