

Greetings, academic adventurers!

Welcome to Åbo Akademi University! I'm Rezwanul Haque, your friendly neighbourhood tutor and fellow lover of tea and nature. I have a deep fondness for movies that delve into philosophical intricacies, stirring the thinker in me. I'm pursuing a master's degree in Peace, Mediation, and Conflict Research, and I hail from Bangladesh.

Finland has a unique charm; the air is crisp, the people are warm, and the sauna is practically a second home. Embrace the cold, it's just nature's way of giving you a warm welcome.

Remember, the best way to get to know a place is through its people. So, dive into conversations, share your stories, and be open to the unexpected. And if all else fails, just smile and nod—it's the universal language of "I have no idea what you just said, but I'm friendly!"

And hey, if you ever need help with your academic endeavours or someone to ponder the meaning of life with (over a cup of tea, of course), I'm your guy. Cheers to the academic adventure ahead! 📄 ✨
