Why do we treat your personal data?

Docents at the Faculty of Science and Engineering is a list of persons who have since 1.1.2015 been tied to Åbo Akademi University by being granted the title of docent or a renewal of the title of docent at the Faculty of Science and Engineering. The data that is published is the name of the person and the field of the docentship. The purpose of publishing this data is transparency in connection with the three statutory duties of the university (research, teaching, community relations).

According to GDPR there must always be a legal basis for processing personal data. The legal basis for processing your personal data is:

Public interest or official authority: Åbo Akademi University has statutory tasks of public interest and the right to exercise official authority according to the Universities Act. Scientific and historical research is an example of a statutory task of public interest.

Personal data is processed according to the legal basis "public interest" (GDPR art. 6.1 e) in accordance with the Data Protection Act (1050/2018, Section 4) concerning data that describes "the position of a person, the person's duties or the performance of these duties in a public sector entity ... or other corresponding activities" (Section 4, point 1).

Which personal data is processed and by whom?

Name and the field of the docentship.

The data is collected by a secretary who is in charge for updating the website for the Faculty of Science and Engineering.

From where do we collect your personal data and how is the data processed?

The name and the field of the docentship is collected from the Chancellor's decisions to award the title of docent.

The data is stored as text document on Åbo Akademi University's server and published on <https://www.abo.fi/>. The list is available until this version of www.abo.fi closes.

Is your personal data transferred to a third party outside Åbo Akademi University or EU/EEA?

No, personal data is not transferred to a third party outside Åbo Akademi University or outside EU/EEA in any other way than that names and fields of docentship are openly available on www.abo.fi.

What rights do you have when Åbo Akademi University processes your personal data?

Åbo Akademi University is responsible for taking appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect personal data against unauthorized or illegal processing and against damage to or loss of personal data.

Personal data must always be processed in a fair and transparent manner in accordance with applicable data protection regulations.

According to the EU General Data Protection Regulation GDPR, you have the right to

- get transparent information on how your personal data is processed and how you can exercise your rights (Art. 12)
- get access to your personal data at Åbo Akademi University and information on the processing of data (Art. 15)
- have your personal data corrected (Art. 16). Note that employees and students at Åbo Akademi University can in most cases correct their own data according to the instructions on the intranet.
- have your data erased ("the right to be forgotten") in certain situations (Art. 17)
- restrict the processing of your personal data in certain situations (Art. 18)
- have your personal data transferred between systems in certain situations (Art. 20)
- object to the processing of your personal data in certain situations (Art. 21)
- not be subject to automated decision-making, with certain exceptions (Art. 22)

You have also the right to be informed of a personal data breach involving a high risk for your personal data (Art. 34).

When the purpose of the processing is scientific research, statistics or archival purposes, the rights may be restricted by the Data Protection Act (1050/2018). Restrictions on rights always require special protective measures.

If you have questions about your rights, you can contact the responsible contact person (see above) or the ÅAU Data Protection Officer (dataskydd@abo.fi). See also the overall information on the processing of personal data on the ÅAU website (www.abo.fi/en/processing-of-personal-data-at-abo-akademi-university).

You have the right to lodge a complaint with the data protection authority if you believe that the processing of your personal data is an infringement of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).
