This guide is for students, mainly exchange students that require help with finding all the information about the offered courses, to help plan their exchange studies at Åbo Akademi University. Use this guide when preparing your study plan or learning agreement.

1 General Information

The official language of instruction at Åbo Akademi University is Swedish. Exchange students can either study in Swedish or complete a full year of studies in English by choosing among a wide variety of courses offered in English (approximately 250 annually).

Students that are proficient in Swedish can see the regular curriculum.

Students will receive feedback on their study plan and are encouraged to read their e-mail often as we expect answers within a few day.

Erasmus+ students are to remember within what agreement they are applying, and to choose courses accordingly.

A full-time course load for one semester is 30 credits, for an academic year 60 credits. Åbo Akademi suggests planning a semester with 30 credits.

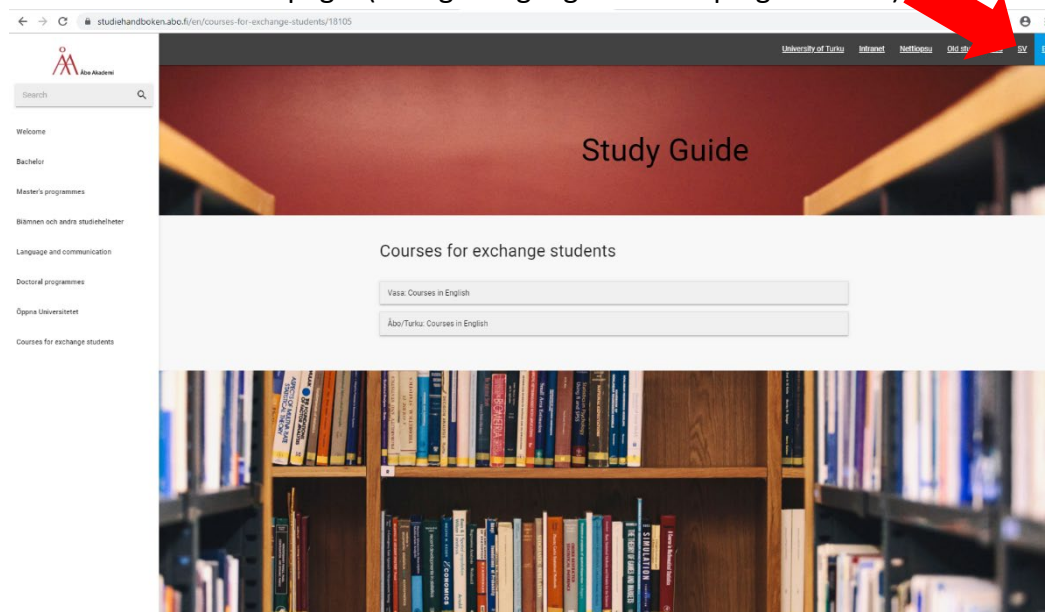

2 Studiehandboken

2.1 Getting Started

You can find all the currently offered courses in English in the Studiehandboken.

<https://studiehandboken.abo.fi/en/courses-for-exchange-students/18105>

This link leads to this page: (change language at the top right corner)

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL studiehandboken.abo.fi/en/courses-for-exchange-students/18105. The page title is "Study Guide" and the main heading is "Courses for exchange students". There are two dropdown menus for language selection: "Vasa: Courses in English" and "Åbo/Turku: Courses in English". A red arrow points to the language selection menu in the top right corner of the page.

2.1.1 Location of Study

Åbo Akademi has two campuses in Finland. Students studying courses highlighted by red will study at the campus in Vasa. Whereas students studying anything from the rest of the courses on this list will study at the Åbo campus.

Combining courses from both campuses (Åbo and Vasa) is NOT possible (unless it is a self-study course), due to the distance.

2.1.2 Faculties

The subjects at Åbo Akademi are divided into 2 faculties.

2.1.3 Picking your Location and Faculty

By clicking on the location, it opens up a menu with the different faculties.

Erasmus+ students are to remember within what agreement they are applying, and to choose courses accordingly.

NOTE:

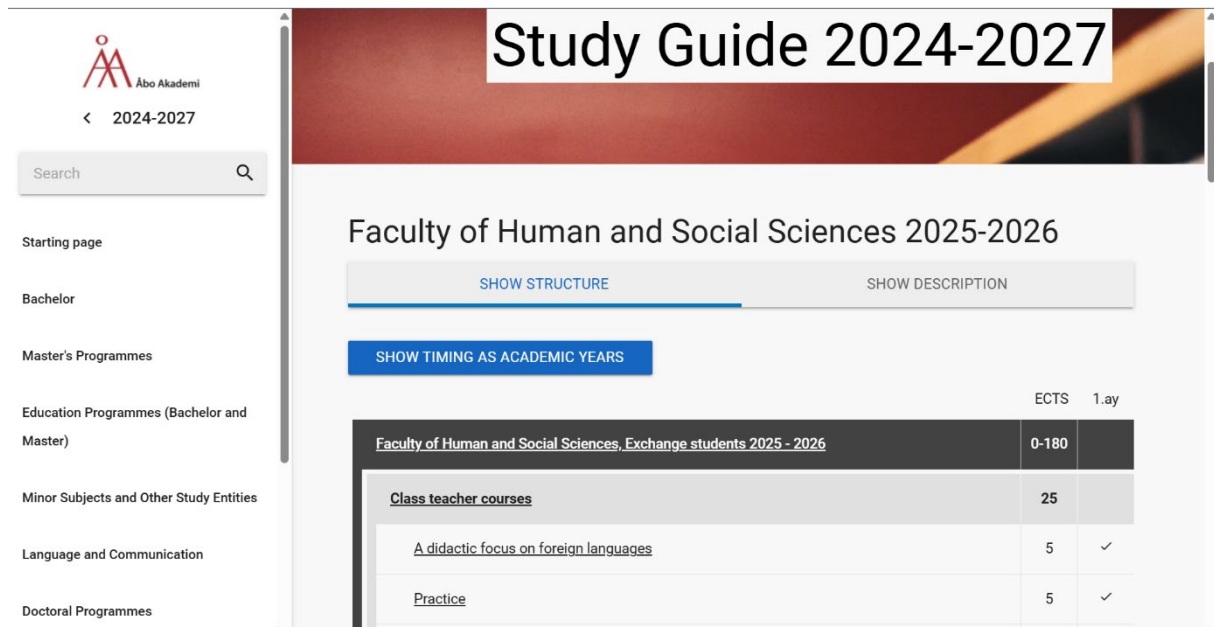

Combining courses from both campuses (Åbo and Vasa) is NOT possible (unless it is a self-study course), due to the distance.

2.2 The Course Table Explained

2.2.1 General

After clicking on the desired faculty, the following page opens up:

The screenshot shows the 'Study Guide 2024-2027' page for the Faculty of Human and Social Sciences 2025-2026. The page features a navigation menu on the left with options like 'Starting page', 'Bachelor', 'Master's Programmes', and 'Education Programmes (Bachelor and Master)'. The main content area includes buttons for 'SHOW STRUCTURE', 'SHOW DESCRIPTION', and 'SHOW TIMING AS ACADEMIC YEARS'. Below these buttons is a table of courses with columns for course name, ECTS credits, and duration.

	ECTS	1.ay
Faculty of Human and Social Sciences, Exchange students 2025 - 2026	0-180
Class teacher courses	25
A didactic focus on foreign languages	5	✓
Practice	5	✓

The course database is updated annually on August 1.

When planning for an exchange semester the Studiehandboken serves as a guide, to get an idea what courses are potentially going to be offered.

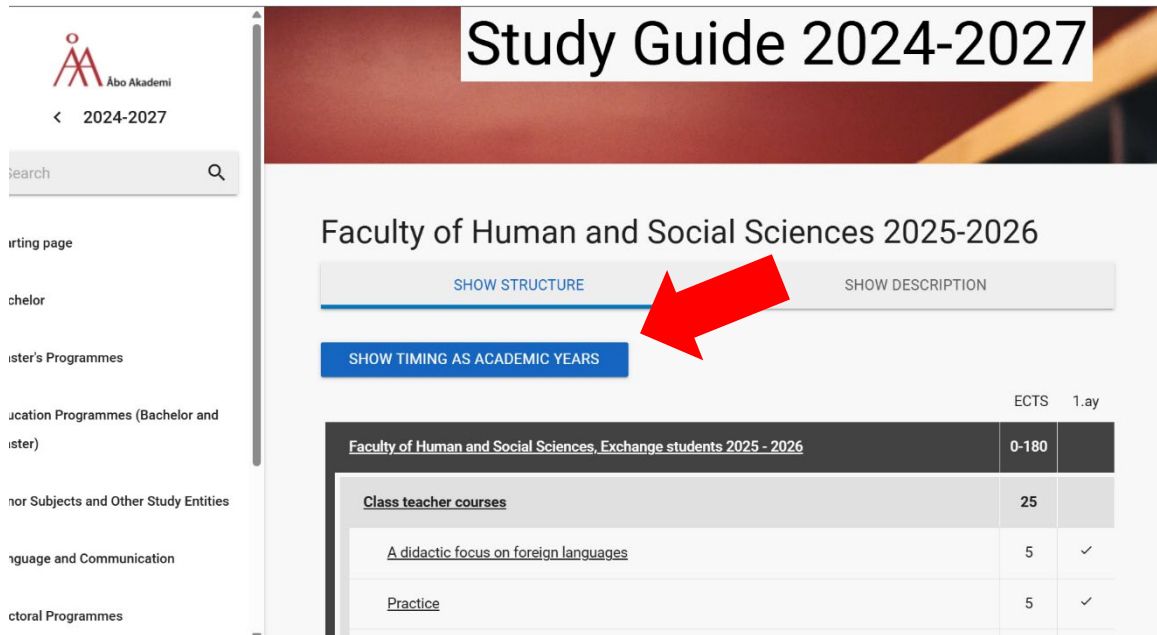

Course information is always subject to change; therefore, it is important that students have alternatives for flexibility.

2.2.2 ECTS

The column named ECTS indicates how many credits will be awarded upon completing the course. All the credits at Åbo Akademi are awarded following the references of the European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System. Most of the courses have a study load of 5 ECTS, which is equal to 140 study load hours.

2.2.3 Show Timing as Semesters or Periods

To see the course table in either semesters or periods, click on the blue field that says “SHOW TIMING AS ACADEMIC YEARS”.

The screenshot shows the website interface for the Faculty of Human and Social Sciences 2025-2026. At the top, there is a search bar and a navigation menu. The main content area features a header 'Study Guide 2024-2027' and a sub-header 'Faculty of Human and Social Sciences 2025-2026'. Below this, there are two buttons: 'SHOW STRUCTURE' and 'SHOW DESCRIPTION'. A red arrow points to a blue button labeled 'SHOW TIMING AS ACADEMIC YEARS'. Below the buttons is a table with columns for course names, ECTS, and 1.ay.

	ECTS	1.ay
Faculty of Human and Social Sciences, Exchange students 2025 - 2026	0-180
Class teacher courses	25
A didactic focus on foreign languages	5	✓
Practice	5	✓

2.2.3.1 Show as Semesters

By clicking on it, it opens a menu with 3 options. Pick “SHOW TIMING AS SEMESTERS” to display the courses in semesters.

The screenshot shows the website interface for the Faculty of Human and Social Sciences 2025-2026. At the top, there is a search bar and a navigation menu. The main content area features a header 'Study Guide 2024-2027' and a sub-header 'Faculty of Human and Social Sciences 2025-2026'. Below this, there are two buttons: 'SHOW STRUCTURE' and 'SHOW DESCRIPTION'. A dropdown menu is open, showing three options: 'Show timing as academic years', 'Show timing as semesters', and 'Show timing as periods'. A red arrow points to the 'Show timing as semesters' option. Below the dropdown is a table with columns for course names, ECTS, and 1.ay.

One column has now been added to the right site of the table.

The academic year is divided into 2 semesters – autumn and spring. Each Semester is about 4 months long.

1.a stands for autumn.

- The Autumn term starts End of August/Beginning of September and ends at the End of December.

1.s stands for spring.

- The Spring term starts Beginning of January and ends Beginning/Mid of May.

If there is a check (✓) in the column it means that the course is offered in the according semester.

If there is no check at all, it is either not offered, a self-study course or offered by the Open University.

However, to get an idea on when the course might be offered, there is also a second way to check.

2.2.3.1.1 View on the Phone (semesters)

It works the same way on the phone but the table looks slightly different. Instead of in columns on the right side, credits and the semester are written right behind the course name.

2.2.4 The other way to find the time a course is offered

If not satisfied with the view in the course table or there is no check (✓), the second option to find the semester/periods a course is offered is to look it up in the course description.

By clicking on a desired course, the following screen appears:

457316.0 Development of Digital Services, 5 ECTS

Show past courses

No bar – NOT offered in the ongoing semester

By clicking on either the blue box or “Show past courses”, it shows the times the course has been offered in the previous semesters/years.

The period that it is or has been offered previously can be found on the right side.

457519.0 Usability Testing, 5 ECTS

457519.0-3001 Usability Testing	01.08.2018 - 29.10.2018
457519.0-3002 Usability Testing	05.09.2019 - 28.10.2019

This can be used as a reference. If a course has been offered the previous 2 years in the first period, it is very likely that it will be offered again in the first period of the upcoming academic year.

However, Course information is always subject to change; therefore, it is important that students have alternatives for flexibility.

2.3 Degree level

To find the courses that match the desired degree level, there is two options. Either in the course table or in the course description.

2.3.1 In the course table

The table usually starts with the bachelor courses, followed by master courses. It says in a black bar at the top “Courses for bachelor students”. To find master courses simply scroll down until you see a bar that says “Courses for master students”.

The other black bars tell which department the courses following below belong to.

	ECTS	1.p	2
Courses for bachelor students	0
Information systems and Information science	0-25

Courses for master students	0
International marketing	0
Market Analysis (in English)	5	✓
Perspectives on the Global Business Environment (in English)	5
Intercultural Marketing Management (in English)	5

Courses can be taken for any degree level as long as any possible prerequisites are obtained prior.

Please remember to choose courses to fit into the curriculum of the home university. The home institution must approve the study plan.

2.3.2 In the course description

To find out which degree level, programme, faculty or department a course belongs to you might also click on the course name and see in the course description under “This course belongs to the following programmes”. It is usually found in the bottom right corner of the course description. It is possible that a course belongs to a bachelor as well as a master degree.

2.5 Language Courses

Åbo Akademi also offers language courses in both national languages, Swedish and Finnish to exchange students.

To find this course, instead of choosing a faculty, choose Centre for languages and communication at the desired location.

The screenshot shows the Åbo Akademi website interface. On the left is a navigation menu with options like 'Startsida', 'Kandidatprogram', 'Magisterprogram', 'Utbildningsprogram', 'Blämnerna och andra studieenheter', 'Språk och kommunikation', and 'Doktorandprogram'. The main content area is titled 'Courses for Exchange Students' and lists several course options under two categories: 'VASA: Courses in English 2024-2026' and 'Åbo/Turku: Courses in English 2024-2027'. A red arrow points to the 'Language Centre, Vasa 2024-2025' option.

Swedish is offered on 4 different levels and Finnish on 2 different levels.

3 Courses at the University of Turku

Exchange students at ÅAU can take part of courses at University of Turku, free of charge.

NOTE:

You cannot take courses from the Turku School of Economics and Business, and language courses are only possible if they have available seats (UTU students are prioritized).

Maximum 50% of the total amount of your credits can be from UTU; the rest has to be from ÅAU.

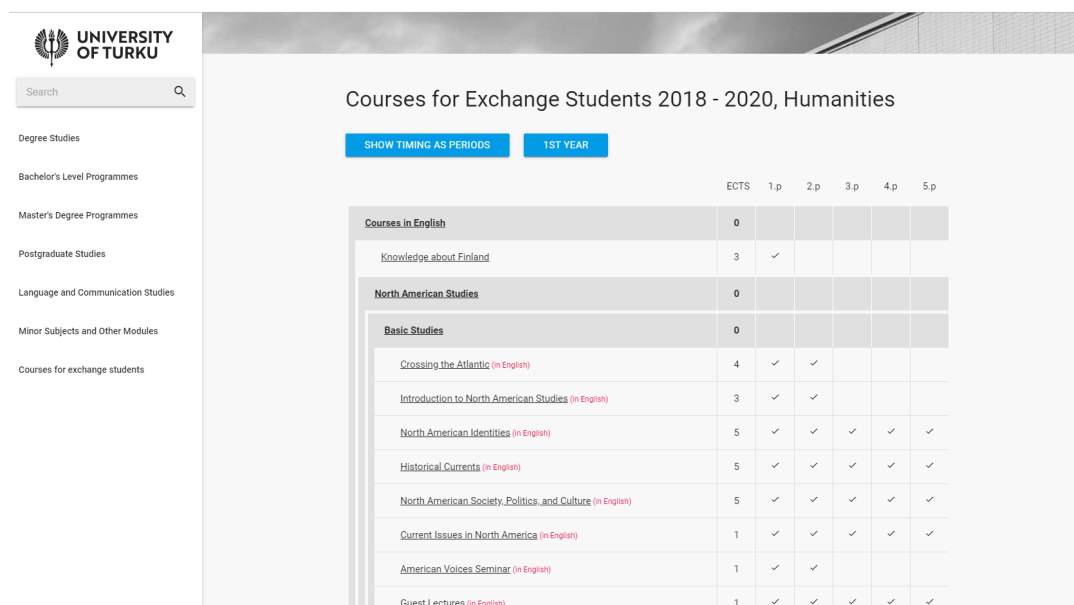

You can list the courses you wish to take in your learning agreement, but we will NOT process them before your arrival in Åbo/Turku. You have to apply yourself for the right to study at UTU, and the right to take the courses you wish to take upon arrival.

3.1 University of Turku's Studiehandboken

Good thing, the Studiehandboken of the University of Turku looks and works exactly the same way Åbo Akademi's does.

You can find it through this link:

<https://opas.peppi.utu.fi/en/courses-for-exchange-students/24345>

The screenshot shows the 'Courses for Exchange Students 2018 - 2020, Humanities' page on the University of Turku website. It features a search bar, a sidebar with navigation options, and a main table of courses. The table has columns for ECTS, 1.p, 2.p, 3.p, 4.p, and 5.p. Courses are grouped into 'Courses in English', 'North American Studies', and 'Basic Studies'.

4 Courses at the Open University

Students may also take courses free of charge at the Open University.

You can find courses offered in English here:

<https://www.abo.fi/en/centre-for-lifelong-learning/the-open-university/courses-in-english/>

5 Courses through UniPID

UniPID is a national network for development studies online, free of charge.

Here is the link to the offered courses through UniPID:

<https://www.unipid.fi/students/virtual-studies/>

This link goes directly to the courses offered. To get further information about these courses, simply click on the course name or the button that says “Info”.

ALL of the course are ONLINE COURSES, which means you do not have to be physical present at the named university. If you are interested in a course that is offered by University of Helsinki through the UniPID network, you do not have to travel to Helsinki for this course. If there is an exam, it also takes place online unless otherwise stated.

6 Courses through Hilma

The Hilma network is a national network for gender studies and offers online courses free of charge for students studying at the member universities.

You can find courses offered in English here:

<https://blogs.helsinki.fi/hilma-verkosto/in-english/courses-in-english/>

7 Username and Password

You will receive a username and password once you have arrived in Åbo/Turku.

They will NOT be given to you ahead of time.

If you arrive in Åbo/Turku before the first day of Orientation week, you are welcome to come to the International Office to obtain your username and password by signing the Åbo Akademi user agreement in person. Otherwise, we will give it to you after you signed the user agreement in the morning of the first day of orientation week.
